

Policy on Gender Equality

The University of Liberal Arts Bangladesh is striving for excellence in education and is committed to the principles of equal opportunity. The student body composition is quite diverse in ULAB. The ratio of male to female is almost same. It is open to all students with equivalent academic qualifications, and does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, gender, religion, nationality, ethnicity or social grouping. ULAB also is open to physically or mentally handicapped students or any special care needed students.
