

University of Liberal Arts Bangladesh

School of Social Science
Masters in Communication
Sample Question Paper

Segment	Question Type	Total Marks
1: English Writing Skills (Essay)	Written	10
2: Interview	Oral	15

Admission Test Sample Question

English Writing Skills

Full Marks: 10

Time: 30 Minutes.

Name:

Test-Roll:

Question

Write an essay of maximum 300 words on any of the following topics:

(a) Rohingya Crisis

(b) Bangla new year festival

(c) Global Climate Change and Bangladesh

(d) Social Media and Youth

Answer:

Sample questions for Masters in Communication Admission Test Interview

Full Marks: 15

Time: 5-10 Minutes.

Career

Where do you want to see yourself after five/ten years?

What leads you to go for Masters in Communication?

Are you aware of the career prospects Masters in Communication may bring?

Do you have any plan to pursue a higher degree, e.g. PhD, after completing Masters in Communication?

Are you familiar with communication management?

How would you differentiate a media technician from communication manager or media manager?

Research competence

Why is research necessary?

Do you see any difference between research writing and journalistic writings?

What is the basic difference between a journalist and a researcher?

What basic skills you think you need to become a researcher?

How research skills may help you in the field of journalism? In other fields?

What is your perception of “Masters by Research”

Describe anything that you consider worth for further research.

What are the issues in Media that you think needs continuous research?

Current affairs

What is your view regarding the Rohingya crisis?

What is your opinion regarding the recent road-safety movement by students?

What is your idea of citizen journalism?

What's your opinion regarding the present political situation in Bangladesh?

What is your favorite sport? How would you evaluate Bangladesh's recent performance in that sport?